GALDWELL'S GAMPAIGN

In the "Shoestring" District One of the Liveliest on Record.

HE IS HUSTLING FARMER CAPEHART

In a Way That Presages a Brilliant Victory for the Republican Candidate in November-An Ovation Tendered Him at Huntington-The Big Wigwam Crowded With an Enthusiastic Audience--Caldwell Refutes the Vile Slanders Circulated by the Henchmen of His Opponent--He is Confident of Success.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 4.-The Charley Caldwell political demonstration last night was the greatest ever witnessed in the second city, both in attendance and enthusiasm.

The torch light demonstration that took place over the principal streets immediately before the speaking at the wigwam, was the largest and finest of this campaign. Nearly a thousand Rethis campaign. Nearry a thousand Republicans marching through the streets of Democratic Cabell's metropolis to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia" was indeed a soul-stirring spectacle.

The wigwam was crowded with humanity long before the parade was computed indeed numbers went away unpleted, indeed numbers went away unable to secure seats. The Fellows demonstration, which the Democrats have been holding up as impossible to excel, was cast in the shade. No such a crowd has been in the wignam since the Reublican state convention. A conserva-publican state convention. A collect va-tive estimate placed the crowd at four thousand people.

There was but one speaker present to address this vast assemblage, but in the Fourth congressional district, when Charley Caldwell is around no others are needed or desired. Eugene Campbell, of the Cabell county executive committee, has named him the "Plumed Knight" of West Virginia, and in ability to hold an audience from beginning to end, be reaks with the

and in ability to hold an audience from beginning to end, he ranks with the man from Maine.

Mr. Caldwell's speech, lasting over two hours, was a characteristic one. He dealt briefly but pointedly on the tariff and money issues, and the force bill bugaboo rung into this campaign by the Democracy.

The gentleman devoted considerable time to a complete denial in detail of the charges brought against him by candidate Capehart's, man Friday, Per-the charges brought against him by candidate Capehart's, man Friday, Perry Simpson, of Mason. This man who is hired by Capehart to speak in his behalf, made some of the most outrageous and villinous accusations against Caldwell. Mr. Caldwell denied them all and brought material proof to back up his assertions. The only one worthy of note was the charge that Caldwell had robbed a dead comrade's children of pension money collected for them. He vindicated himself of this charge with the aid of the receipt given by the with the aid of the receipt given by the court at Parkersburg, showing he had even spent his own money in getting the pension, yet he turned over the whole amount.

Caldwell made a favorable impression,

Caldwell made a tavoratic impression, and shrewd politicians to-day say he is over a hundred votes stronger in Huntington than before last night's meeting. He is confident of his election at the polls, and says the Republicans are alive and enthusiastic all over the "Shoestring."

CLEVELAND'S INSULTS

To the Veterans of the War-Vete of De-pendent Pension Bill, New York Advertiser,

Reference was made a few days agoin the Morning Advertiser to the fact that in January, 1887, Mr. Cleveland approved the Mexican Pension Bill, which grantthe Mexican Pension Bill, which granted pensions to every surviving soldier of the army which fought in Mexico, whether dependent or not, and that in the following month of February he vetoed the dependent pension bill, a measure providing that pensions should be granted to all surviving Union soldiers who had become dependent through no fault or vice of their own.
These old soldiers of the Mexican war are chiefly citizens of the Southern

These old soldiers of the Mexican war are chiefly citizens of the Southern states. They fought to secure territory in which the accursed institution of human slavery might be extended and perpetuated. They are all pensioned, without exception, rich and poor alike, hale and hearty or sick and dependent; and, if dependent, it makes no difference how they became so, whether through unavoidable happening or through vice, debauchery or even crime.

The dependent pension bill provided The dependent pension bill provided that only those surviving union soldiers who could show that they had become dependent through no vice or lault of their own should receive pensions, and they would have been required, if the bill had become a law, to prove this fact. This bill was promptly vetoed by President Cleveland, who in his message returning the bill to congress, used the following extraordingly language:

nary language:
"The soldiers of our civil war, in their "The soldiers of our civil war, in their pay and bounty, received such compensation for their military services as has never been received by soldiers before since mankind went to war. The really needy and homeless soldiers of the rebellion have been to a large extent, provided for at soldiers homes. This sad, but nevertheless true, that in the matter of procuring pensions there exists a widespread disregard of truth and good faith. And truth and good faith.  And there can be no doubt that the race after the pensions offered by this bill, would not only stimulate weakness and pretended incapacity for labor, but put a further premium on dishonesty and pendecity." mendacity.

In other words, Mr. Cleveland signs a bill to pension southern members of his own party for service in a war fought in the interests of the extension and perpetuation of slavery, without requiring these high-toned southern gentlemen to prove anything save that they were soldiers in that war, and without question whether they needed relief or not, but refuest to sign a bill to give a pittance to the old Union soldier, who may have become dependent through misfortune of any kind, and insults him in his old age and penury by intimating, first, that he fought for his beggarly pay and bounty, and not from patriotism, and that he has already received enough; and that if he is old and in want he can go to the pporbouse or soldier's home, and be maintained like any other pauper; and, secondly, by charging boldly that those who have already applied for pensions have lied to get them, and have defranded the government, and that if the bill became a law those who would apply under it would lie and pretend to be unable to work, and attempt to defraud the government!

For cool malignancy of insult this can scarcely be surpassed. He is speaking of that class of the community who left wives and children, homes and business, and everything dear to the heart of man, to fight for the preservation of their country, and, if necessary, give up In other words, Mr. Cleveland signs a

They were the flower of the people of the United States, and since the war have been useful citizens, respected and loved and honored for their patriotism, which has been held up as a lesson and an example to the children of the land! And this class he brands and stigmatizes as mercenaries lights, perjurers and paupers. cenaries, liars, perjurers and paupers, who ought to be thankful that they are

COOLEY NOT FOR GROVER.

There Are Some Things in the Democratic Platform He Can't Stand. Ann Arnor, Mich., Oct. 5.—"The statement made in the New York Times that I am about to declare myself for Mr. Cleveland is entirely without foundstion," said ex-Judge Thomas M. Cooley last night. "I am too old and too feeble a man to take any active part in politics, and I cannot say that I man ready to indorse all the principles of the Demo-cratic platform."

He now refuses to be "muzzled" any longer, and comes out squarely for the Republican party. lican party.

Wayne MacVengh Sized Up.

As a matter of fact Mr. MacVeagh has not been a Republican for about ten years. He went into the Mugwump ranks almost immediately after the disyears. He are the dissolution of President Garfield's cabinet, in which he figured as a Republican. He supported John Stewart in 1882 for governor against General Beaver, the soldier candidate. He did not support Biaine in 1884, He was not heard of in the campaigns of 1886 and 1888, and in 1890 he was sound shouting in a very unladylike way for Pattison and the Democracy. No one can have any objection to Mr. Wayne MacVeagh voting to suit himself—provided he is legally qualified—but he cannot nose as a disgusted Republican. The disgust is on the other side, nearly everybody being disgusted with Mr. MacVeagh and his nation that he is an influential politician—something he influential politician-something never was at any stage of his career.

And Reflect-The Plank Voted Down Declared that the Difference Between the Cost of Labor Here and Abroad Should be Considered in Framing Tariff Laws--The Plank Adopted Declares that the only Purpose For Tariff Should be Revenue, Which is the Tariff England Has.

Here is the portion of the tariff plank reported by the majority of the com-mittee on resolutions which the Chicago convention voted down:

We reiterate the off-repeated doc-trines of the Democratic party, that the necessity of the Government is the only justification for taxation, and whenever a tax is unnecessary, it is unjustifiable; that when customs house taxation is levied upon articles of any kind produced in this country, THE DIFFER-ENCE BETWEEN THE COST OF LABOR HERE AND LABOR ABROAD,

ENCE BETWEEN THE COST OF LABOR HERE AND LABOR ASIROAD, when such a difference exists, fully measures any possible benefits to labor, and the enormous additional impositions of the existing tariff fall with crushing lorce upon our farmers and workingmen, and, for the mere advantage of the few whom it enriches, exacts from labor a grossly unjust share of the expense of the Government. And we demand such a revision of the tariff laws as will remove their iniquitous inequalities, lighten their oppressions and put them on a constitutional and equitable basis.

But, in making reduction in taxes, IT IS NOT PROPOSED TO INJURE ANY DOMESTIC INDUSTRIES, BUT RATHER TO PROMOTE THEIR HEALTHY GROWTH. From the foundation of this government the taxes collected at the custom house have been the chief source of federal revenue. Such they must continue to be. Moreover, many industries have come to rely upon legislation for successful continuance, so that ANY CHANGES OF LAW MUST BE AT EVERY STEP REGARDFUL OF THE LABOR AND CAPITAL THUS INVOLVED. The progress of reform must be subject in the execution to this plain dictate of justice. tion to this plain dictate of justice.

We denounce Republican protection as a fraud—as a robbery of a great majority of the American people for the benefit of a few. WE DECLARE IT TO BE A FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS NO CONSTITUTIONAL POWER TO IMPOSE AND COLLECT A DOLLAR FOR TAX EXCEPT FOR PURPOSES OF REVENUE ONLY, and demand that the collection of such taxes be imposed by the government when only honestly and economically administered.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Four million bushels of long wheat was dumped into the plt today. Nevertheless wheat to-night is only Salar lower than at the close yesteriar. Wheat opened very strong and first sales were at some advance, the atrength being based on higher cables and brinsk local demand. But there seemed to be any amount for sale at the advance, and there was a gradual loss of $2c, from which there was subsequently little rebound. One of the potent reasons for the early display of strength was the unfavorable reports of the condition of the whiter wheat. The receipts in the northwest were more liberal, and exports from the seaports were analiet. Logan, Michell, Dunn and Comstock were good buyers early, but later the crowd turned largely to the selling side, and there was a steady decline. Closing cables were for the part firm, and Bradsreet's estimate of the visible supply did not show as heavy an increase as had been looked for.

The corn market was firm at the opening and
